

NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

Effective: April 14, 2003 | Updated: December 2016

CalOptima provides you access to health care through the Medicare and/or Medi-Cal program. We are required by state and federal law to protect your health information. After you become eligible and enroll in our health plan, Medicare and/or Medi-Cal sends your information to us. We also receive medical information from your doctors, clinics, labs and hospitals in order to approve and pay for your health care.

This notice describes how medical information about you may be used and disclosed and how you can get access to this information. Please review it carefully.

Your Rights

When it comes to your health information, you have certain rights.

This section explains your rights and some of our responsibilities to help you.

Get a copy of your health and claims records	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• You can ask to see or get a copy of your health and claims records and other health information we have about you. You must make this request in writing. You will be sent a form to fill out and we may charge a reasonable fee for the costs of copying and mailing records. You must provide a valid form of identification in order to view or get a copy of your health records.• We will provide a copy or a summary of your health and claims records, usually within 30 days of your request.• We may keep you from seeing certain parts of your records for reasons allowed by law.• CalOptima does not have complete copies of your medical records. If you want to look at, get a copy of, or change your medical records, please contact your doctor or clinic.
Ask us to correct health and claims records	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• You have the right to send in a written request to ask that information in your records be changed if it is not correct or complete. You must make your request in writing.• We may refuse your request if the information is not created or kept by CalOptima, or we believe it is correct and complete but we'll tell you why in writing within 60 days.• If we don't make the changes you ask, you may ask that we review our decision. You may also send a statement saying why you disagree with our records, and your statement will be kept with your records.
Request confidential communications	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• You can ask us to contact you in a specific way (for example, home or office phone) or to send mail to a different address.• We will consider all reasonable requests, and must say "yes" if you tell us you would be in danger if we do not.

Ask us to limit what we use or share	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • You can ask us not to use or share certain health information for treatment, payment, or our operations. • We are not required to agree to your request, and we may say “no” if it would affect your care.
Get a list of those with whom we’ve shared information	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • You can ask for a list (accounting) of the times we’ve shared your health information for six years prior to the date you ask. • You have the right to request a list (accounting) of what information was shared, who it was shared with, when it was shared and why. • We will include all the disclosures except for those about treatment, payment, and health care operations, and certain other disclosures (such as any you asked us to make).
Get a copy of this privacy notice	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • You can ask for a paper copy of this notice at any time, even if you have agreed to receive the notice electronically. We will provide you with a paper copy promptly. • You can also find this notice on our website at www.caloptima.org.
Choose someone to act for you	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • If you have given someone medical power of attorney or if someone is your legal guardian, that person can exercise your rights and make choices about your health information. • We will make sure the person has this authority and can act for you before we take any action.
File a complaint if you feel your rights are violated	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • You can complain if you feel we have violated your rights by contacting us using the information on page 6. • We will not retaliate against you for filing a complaint.
Self-pay restriction	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • If you pay the whole bill for a service, you can ask your doctor not to share the information about that service with us. If you or your provider submits a claim to CalOptima, we do not have to agree to a restriction. If a law requires the disclosure, CalOptima does not have to agree to your restriction.

For certain health information, you can tell us your choices about what we share.

If you have a clear preference for how we share your information in the situations described below, please contact us. In most cases, if we use or disclose your PHI outside of treatment, payment or operations, we must get your written permission first. If you give us your permission, you may take it back in writing at any time. We can't take back what we used or shared when we had your written permission, but we will stop using or sharing your PHI in the future.

In these cases, you have both the right and choice to tell us to:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Share information with your family, close friends, or others involved in payment for your care • Share information in a disaster relief situation

In these cases we never share your information unless you give us written permission:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Psychotherapy Notes: We must obtain your authorization for any use or disclosure of psychotherapy notes except to carry out certain treatment, payment or health care operations. • Marketing purposes • Sale of your information
